

SYDNEY BUS ROUTES

Sydney Region route numbers

Routes 975 –999

Histories of bus services (both Government & private) in the metropolitan area of Sydney, New South Wales, Australia, with route numbers in the geographically-based Sydney Region (sometimes called three-digit) route number system, initiated when Government bus routes were renumbered during the period 1938-44 and private bus routes similarly renumbered during the period 1981-2004

A work in progress. Corrections and comments welcome – robkit.henderson@bigpond.com

In the Timetable Summaries, details are normally shown for Mondays to Fridays, Saturdays & Sundays. Times for Sundays typically also apply to Public Holidays. However, where first/last trips and/or frequencies on Public Holidays vary significantly from those on Sundays, times for Public Holidays (Hols) are also shown.

(■) denotes this route or this version of the route no longer operative.

RYDE Station – MEADOWBANK – PUTNEY POINT (Slazengers) (INDUSTRIAL) ■

(Ryde Station was renamed West Ryde in October 1945.)

Timeline

16 February 1943:

- Meadowbank – Putney Point commenced by Department of Road Transport & Tramways.
- Its successor listed as running Monday-Saturday (did 998 also run those days?).

15 March 1943:

- Extended to run Ryde Station – Meadowbank – Putney Point
- May have also extended to Ryde Post Office.
- Besides serving Slazengers, this route appears to have also been used to provide access to Green Point Naval Boatyard, located in Mortlake, which would have required passengers to travel between Putney Point and Mortlake by the vehicular ferry/punt.

17 April 1944: Renumbered 457 [Sydney Region route number].
